Notice

State law makes it unlawful for you to possess a firearm or alien firearm license if you have been convicted in any court for domestic violence assault. If you were convicted of non-felony domestic violence assault before July 1, 1993, you may possess a concealed pistol license. However, federal law makes it unlawful for you to possess a firearm if you have been convicted in any court of domestic violence assault (felony or misdemeanor), regardless of the date of conviction.

Domestic violence assault conviction

Conviction date	Is possession of a firearm allowed?	Is possession of an alien firearms license allowed?
Prior to July 1, 1993 felony conviction	No	No
Prior to July 1, 1993 non-felony conviction	No	Yes
After July 1, 1993 felony conviction	No	No

A person is not considered convicted if he or she has received a pardon or has had his or her firearms rights restored by the appropriate court. This does not include certificates of rehabilitation issued by Washington courts.

Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms may differ. You may be prosecuted in federal court if you are prohibited by federal law from possession of a firearm. A state license is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

The application fees for an alien firearms license are non-refundable. If you are not sure you are eligible to possess a firearm, we encourage you to contact an attorney before submitting an application for an alien firearms license.
